Tornado Lashes Urbana Area; Storms Sweep Fayette County

Still another violent electrical storm, accompanied by considerable rain, swept a large portion of Fayette County Wednesday night while some other points in Ohio were subjected to terrific windstorms which caused heavy property damage and injured a number of people.

In Washington C. H. precipitation totaled .38 of an inch, but in the main path of the storm rainfall was much greater. There also was considerable wind.

Lightning Does Damage

During a violent electrical storm Wednesday night, two cows on the Charles Ford farm near Cooks Station, were killed by a bolt of lightning.

The lightning struck many times in Madison Township and heavy rainfall accompanied the lightning.

Three barns were struck by lightning and burned during a violent electrical storm early Wednesday morning.

The barns belonged to G. H. Phillips, near Logan Elm; Floyd Hughes, near Williamsport, and Cecil Caudy, near Darbyville.

Lightning also hit the Littleton Funeral Home in Sabina, traveling in on electrical wires. Firemen extinguished the blaze, with minor damage.

Tornado Leaves Debris In Champaign County

(By The Associated Press)

A tornado struck St. Paris, in Champaign County, about 9 P. M. (EST) last night, damaged at least 18 buildings, then moved eastward 12 miles to Urbana where it damaged 14 more buildings.

The state highway patrol reported four persons suffered injuries, one man in his home and three others when trees fell on their automobiles.

The twister hit first about three blocks west of the center of St. Paris, which is about 15 miles northwest of Springfield.

The highway patrol said 12 homes, five business places and one church were damaged.

Falling trees littered the streets in St. Paris and Urbana.

The tornado cut off electric power for about an hour. Telephone service also was disrupted and was still out early today.

The tornado lasted about 10 minutes in St. Paris and then moved eastward along U. S. Route 36 to Urbana. The tail end of the twister struck Urbana about 9:20 P. M., damaging at least eight homes and six business places.

The highway patrol counted five farm houses damaged near Westville, five miles west of Urbana.

A drenching rain followed the tornado, causing additional damage, the patrol said.

The Red Cross sent a disaster unit from Urbana to St. Paris.

In adjoining Clark County, the windstorm blew down the unfinished four-room concrete block home of Mr. and Mrs. Florence Jones while the family was in a nearby town buying ice cream.

Farms Smashed too

The high wind ripped through the Myrtle Tree Cemetery between Westville and St. Paris, blowing over a dozen monuments, a dozen trees and knocking off the church's belfry.

Considerable damage was done to farm districts, but farmers declined to estimate their losses until consulting insurance men.

Harold Hunter and Charles Dorsey of St. Paris saw the storm coming and tried to close a garage door. The wind ripped the door from its fastenings, blowing it atop Dorsey. Hunter sailed through the air for 20 or 30 feet.

"I heard a terrific, whirling, swirling sound," he said, "and I tried to crawl into the garage. Then there was a terrific crash. A big tree fell on the garage."

Hunter today nursed a sore shoulder. Dorsey was shaken up badly.

Two blocks away, Mrs. W. E. Zerkle heard the rain but not the wind. Her husband came home a bit later, and asked:

"Wasn't that a terrific storm?"

"Why, no. I didn't think so," she answered.

Then he told her about the storm.

TWO STATES BATTERED

Two states staggered today from effects of the weather—too much rain in Kansas; none in southern Louisiana.

Water ran knee deep in some Kansas communities. Thousands of acres of farmland were flooded. Rain, hail and wind has caused an estimated $22,000,000 to $24,000,000 damage to crops, livestock and stored grain.

The Kansas forecast: More rain, the same as for the last month.

In Louisiana, farmers hoped and prayed for rain as they expressed fear of severe damage to crops.

New Red Drive Is Scented as Fighting Flares

Commie Attacks Smashed by Allied Artillery Barrages

By OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, June 28—(AP)—Thundering Allied artillery today smashed a series of Chinese attacks which Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet warned may be forerunners of a new Red offensive in Korea.

The United Nations ground commander foresaw no "major thrust immediately." But, he said on a tour of the fighting fronts, "the Chinese appear to be building up for another effort" to overrun UN lines.

Neither Van Fleet nor the supreme Allied headquarters of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway would discuss a Russian cease fire proposal.

Van Fleet said he knew nothing about it.

"Of course, in our hearts, we all want peace," Van Fleet said. "But we won't let up on the enemy."

Sharp Fighting Flares

Sharp fighting flared all across the central front as opposing armies continually probed enemy lines.

Heaviest action was near Kumhwa, where a Red battalion attacked a UN division last night. Allied artillery broke up the attack in the early morning hours.

Other attacks followed until daylight. All were smashed.

In the adjoining Kumsong sector, two other Red battalions beat back Allied efforts to probe defenses in that Red buildup area.

The Reds are "continuing to defend stubbornly all across the front," Van Fleet commented. "This stubborn defensive attitude shows that they do not want us to go farther north."

And, he added, it "could be screening an attack buildup."

On a visit to all three corps in his eighth army, Van Fleet reported he found the morale high -- unaffected by Red tactics or cease-fire talk.

No Comment on Rumors

On his return to headquarters he was asked about Washington reports Russians proposed UN and North Korean field commanders discuss a cease-fire at the 38th Parallel. He replied:

"I've just returned from visiting my forward units who are carrying out a military mission in Korea."

"I cannot comment on either reports or rumors. I act only in accordance with orders."

Pilots returning from Thursday air strikes said they had knocked out 69 bridges in seven days.

Archbishop Groesz Sentenced to Prison

BUDAPEST, Hungary, June 28—(AP)—Roman Catholic Archbishop Jozsef Groesz was convicted today of plotting to overthrow the Communist government of Hungary and was sentenced to 15 years in prison.

One of the other eight defendants tried with the archbishop was sentenced to death. He is Ferenc Vecer, a Paulician monk, who confessed in court that he killed a Russian soldier.

Five others received jail sentences ranging from eight to 14 years.

The archbishop, Hungary's highest ranking Catholic Church dignitary since Cardinal Mindszenty was sent to prison for life in a similar trial in 1949, had confessed publicly in court to illegal activities.

4-H Clubbers Here Go on Tour

Tours, a picnic, an amusement park trip, and an excursion through the zoo at Cincinnati were among the day's activities 150 young 4-H Club members were looking forward to Thursday, when they boarded four Greyhound buses here.

These 150 youngsters, along with eight bus loads of children from Clinton County, left here at 7 o'clock this morning, accompanied by 10 chaperones. They arrived in Cincinnati at about 9 o'clock and two of the buses stopped at the Times-Star building, so the children could tour the newspaper offices and the television and radio stations.

The other two buses took their loads of youngsters to the Rockwood Pottery Company, where they toured the plant and saw how pottery is made.

At noon the four buses took the group to the Cincinnati Zoo for a box lunch, followed by a trip through the zoo to see the animals.

Coney Island Amusement Park, in honor of the Fayette and Clinton County 4-H Club members' visit, reduced all fares on the rides for the members of the touring group.

Albert Cobb, associate county extension agent, was in charge of the 4-H Club members from Fayette County.

The tired, but happy group of youngsters will return to the bus station here about 9 o'clock tonight (Thursday).

Cattlemen Deny Strike Against Price Control; Blame Put on Weather

By DON WHITEHEAD

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 28—(AP)—Texas' billion-dollar cattle industry is buzzing like a nest full of angry hornets today with denials that there is -- or ever has been a cattleman's strike against price controls on beef.

Cattlemen insist there has been to hold cattle from the market as no deliberate effort on their part a means of fighting the administration's price regulations.

One cattleman, when asked about it, exclaimed: "we don't want to be regulated. There's no secret about that. We don't like the government messing into our business. But we don't strike against the government."

"How can a cattleman strike? When a steer is ready for the market -- it has to go to market. That's all there is to it."

"Even if there had been no controls, there still would have been a shortage of finished beef. That's because corn-fed cattle already have gone to market and it's too early yet for the big movement of grass-fed cattle to reach the market."

Receipts Drop Off

Reports of a cattleman's strike started after receipts at the 12 big markets dropped to a trickle a few weeks ago.

There was talk the growers were deliberately holding back their steers in a fight against the beef price rollbacks ordered by the Office of Price Stabilization as a means of reducing the retail price paid by housewives in the butcher shop.

But government men, cattle buyers, stockyard men and newspaper farm editors to whom I have talked all agree there has been no strike by cattlemen although cattlemen have adopted a "wait and see" policy on price controls.

Here is their explanation of the situation:

Texas is the biggest cattle producer.

Ohio's Governor Declares War on Use of Narcotics

COLUMBUS, June 28—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today called a conference of law enforcement officials and others to review the state's campaign against the illegal use of narcotics.

The July 6 meeting will bring together heads of associations of police chiefs, prosecutors, sheriffs and mayors.

"I assume that enforcement officials are making a reasonable effort to apprehend violators and subject them to prosecution," the governor said. "Nevertheless, I am calling a meeting to be held in my office on Friday, July 6, at 11 A. M."

The governor's statement calling the meeting said Ohio has a "very effective" law dealing with the illegal traffic in narcotics. He noted that:

"The grave revelations of the extent to which narcotics are being used and the evil ramifications that follow from their use cannot go unattended by local or state officials."

Military Basis For Negotiation Now Suggested

Conferences Held On Short Notice by Nations Involved

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—The State Department announced today Russia has proposed the United Nations, North Korean and Red Chinese commanders negotiate a Korean armistice.

The Soviet Union suggested armistice terms limited "to strictly military questions."

The proposal was made yesterday to Ambassador Alan G. Kirk by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Gromyko in Moscow.

Gromyko, the department said, "indicated that it would be for the military representatives of the United Command and of the Korean Republic command on the one hand and the military representatives of the North Korean command and of the 'Chinese volunteer units' on the other to negotiate the armistice envisaged in Mr. Malik's statement."

Jacob Malik, Soviet delegate to the United Nations, put forward the original cease-fire suggestion in a speech Saturday.

Clarification Asked

Kirk, on instructions from Secretary of State Acheson, called on Gromyko yesterday to seek a clarification of Malik's speech.

"The armistice, Mr. Gromyko pointed out, would include a cease fire and would be limited to strictly military questions without involving any political or territorial matters; the military representatives would discuss questions of assurance against the resumption of hostilities."

"Beyond the conclusion of an armistice the Soviet government had no specific steps in mind looking toward the peaceful settlement to which Mr. Malik referred. Mr. Gromyko indicated, however, that it would be up to the parties in Korea to decide what subsequent special arrangements would have to be made for a political and territorial settlement."

"He said that the Soviet government was not aware of the views of the Chinese Communist regime in Mr. Malik's statement."

"The implications of Mr. Gromyko's observations are being studied. The Department of State is consulting with the representatives of other countries having armed forces in Korea under the United Command."

Conferences Held

At the same time of the department's announcement, Assistant Secretary of State John D. Hickerson was engaged in a series of conferences with diplomats representing many of the countries fighting in Korea.

Press Officer Lincoln White told reporters the department could not speculate on what might be the end result of consultations.

Officials indicated, however, that the department is reserving judgment on prospects for a cease-fire, and is steering clear of either elation or dejection as a result of the new development.

Th indications are the Soviet Union wants to deal directly with the United States in this matter, by-passing the United Nations, and apparently the representatives of the nations fighting with the U. S. in Korea are willing, at least in the preliminary stages.

Negotiations between the North Koreans and the UN command in the field would leave out the Chinese Communists in cease-fire dickerings. The possibility is being discussed here that Russia is seeking a way of saving face for the Chinese. Moscow and Peking have insisted the Chinese fighting in Korea are volunteers. Thus if the North Koreans accepted a cease-fire, the volunteers could go home, and "face," important in the Orient, would be saved for the Chinese and the Russians, too.

Army Man Named To Collect Taxes

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—A bustling, 47-year-old Texan who served as a brigadier general in World War II and has recently been fighting racketeer tax evaders has been picked to head all federal tax collecting operations.

John B. Dunlap, a native of Dallas, will succeed ailing George J. Schoeneman, 62, who will retire as commissioner of internal revenue July 31. The White House made the announcement yesterday.

Another Tax Increase On Incomes and Sales Asked by President

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—The Truman administration today asked the Senate to add about $3,000,000,000 more to the House-approved boost in individual income and excise (sales) taxes.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder told the Senate finance committee the $7,200,000,000 tax hike voted by the House is insufficient, because it threatens to put the government in the red and add to inflationary pressures.

Congress, he insisted, should provide at least the roughly $10,000,000,000 in extra taxes asked by President Truman originally -- and should aim chiefly at individual income and excise taxes for the $3,000,000,000 addition to the House tax bill.

The House measure would raise individual income taxes by 12½ percent to provide an extra $2,847,000,000 in yearly revenues. Excise taxes on gasoline, tobacco and many other items would be boosted by varying amounts to bring in $1,252,000,000 more annually.

First at Hearing

Snyder was the leadoff witness as the Senate committee opened hearings on higher taxes, using the House bill as the cornerstone of its deliberations.

Have you wondered what the preface "RE" on license plates means? Well, Howard Allen, deputy motor vehicle registrar, explained the mystery, which prompted one local resident to ask the Record-Herald about the plates. He explained that it indicates that the license is a replacement -- that the owner has lost or had his plate or plates stolen. Since this year is the first for the new series, not too many of the $1 apiece plates are in evidence.

It was a cinch to happen . . . Last week there was a little piece in this pillar about a giant delphinium that was the pride and joy of Mrs. Ed Mathews. At the time, it was noted that, sooner or later, someone would turn up with a bigger one.

J. Paul Strevey almost did. He tied it, anyway. He brought it into the Record-Herald office, proud as punch.

Mrs. Mathews' giant was more than six feet tall and had a flower spike 28 inches tall.

You'll have to take Strevey's word that the stalk of his plant tops six feet, too. But, the flower spike was here for measurement—it was just 28 inches long.

Mrs. Mathews' delphinium is growing in the front yard of her home on North Third Street. Strevey's flower (he insists it is his) is in the back of his Rawlings Street home.

Just as a sidelight, Strevey echoed Walter Patton's suggestion that the men around here who like to grow flowers as a hobby, for an all-man flower club.

Stuart Gosard, a big husky heman, told Strevey he was ready, willing and anxious to help get an all-man flower club started here. I believe his specialty is roses.

Soldier in Korea Still Has Humor

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., June 28—(AP)—A soldier on duty in Korea has offered to pay a traffic fine in Korean money.

City Manager Keith Chinn said he received 300 wan (paper money) yesterday from Pvt. John C. Mortimer in Korea with the Eighth Cavalry Regiment, to cover a parking fine.

With the wan was a note from Pvt. Mortimer.

"I haven't any United States money," he wrote, "but if this won't do I'd be glad for you to come and get me."

Civilian Defense Ridiculed In Letters Flooding Cities

COLUMBUS, June 28—(AP)—Fake letters poking fun at or criticizing civil defense have been mailed in great numbers in Columbus, Detroit, Cleveland, and New York, a Columbus civil defense official said today.

George Arnold, executive administrator for civil defense in Columbus, said Columbus, Ohio and federal officials are investigating. Columbus authorities said the letters are more than a practical joke. Considerable money is being spent, they said.

Arnold said he was told at a national meeting on civil defense in Detroit last week similar letters are being received by residents of major cities throughout the country.

The Columbus letters, personally addressed to individuals by an electric typewriter on bond paper and signed by "Hugh B. Reddy," give a fake assignment in civil defense and lists several hundred dollars in "necessary equipment."

The list of equipment is the barb by which the writer apparently tries to hold up civil defense to ridicule. It lists such things as extension ladders to be carried on one shoulder, a stirrup pump on another, a belt with hooks for carrying four buckets of water and four buckets of sand, a steel helmet with turned up brim for carrying extra water, and similar ironic items.

The letters purport to come from the "Civilian Defense Program Commission, State of Ohio."

In some cities, follow-up letters signed "U. B. Reddy" have been received.

Columbus post office authorities said samples have been sent to Washington for analyzing. The Columbus FBI said it had notified the district office in Cincinnati.

4-H Variety Show Nets $40 for Tour

Ten of the 14 Happy Stitches from Jasper Township today were having a big time on the 4-H Club tour of Cincinnati and its amusement places, but they just got under the wire with their money-raising project to help pay expenses.

The variety show that was given in the Milledgeville School Tuesday night netted about $40 that was turned into the fund just before the girls got ready to leave early Thursday morning.

The show was given in the first grade room of the school with members of the club, other youngsters of the community and a couple of adults putting on the entertainment.

Seats for about 180 had been crowded into the room, but they were far from enough to take care of the crowd. One of the committee that arranged the show said "we would have made lots for the club if we had charged more and had more room."

The program was made up of about 25 different acts such as recitations, monologues, tap and ballet dancing, songs, readings, piano numbers, musical skits and instrumental pieces.

As extra added attractions were numbers by Carl Wilt and His Boys, a presentation by Mrs. Forrest Allen De Bra and a trombone solo by County Auditor Ulric Acron.

The other players included Kathy Allen, Mary Jo Minton, Carolyn Crago, Jack Aikire, Rita Sagar, Gerald Leasure, Larry East, Bobby Cannon, little Johnny Spencer of Springfield, Judy Smith, Sharon Garringer, Buddy McAllister (singer with the Wilcox orchestra), Carolyn Yoakum, Evelyn Hiser, Patti Smith, Dorothy Anderson, Maunna Huff, Ludine Massie, Phyllis Massie, Beverly Allen, Carolyn Gault, Natalie McLean, Ronald Klever, Dickie Miller from near Bloomingburg, Marsha Fletcher and Kemp Allamang.

The committee who arranged the show were Mrs. Malcolm Gault, Mrs. Hoyt Bock, and Mrs. Harry Allen. Mrs. Charles Butler is the club advisor.

John Sheeley was the master of ceremonies and the pianists were Mrs. Thelma Minton, Joan Bock, June Vincent, Jean Miller and Mrs. Mary Jean Schwaigert.

Degrees Conferred At Madison Grange

The first and second degrees were conferred on seven candidates by the Good Hope Grange degree team at Wednesday night's meeting of the Madison Good Will Grange in Grange Hall.

Gathered for the meeting and ceremonies were 34 members of the Good Will Grange and 21 guests.

Inducted into the order were Mrs. Grace Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Haines of Madison Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Crabbe and their daughters, Misses June and Barbara of near Mt. Sterling.

Edwin Smith, the master, presided over the business meeting at which Richard Hunter was named chairman of a committee to take charge of the Good Will exhibit at the Fair next month.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Gibeau, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schlichter and Jack Rodgers.

rice and sugar cane crops. Milk production dropped 15 percent below normal.

Planes flew over the drought areas seeding clouds with dry ice in an attempt to bring to the parched farmlands.

Drinking water was being hauled to residents of several communities between New Orleans and Baton Rouge. Wells were drying up and cutting off city water supplies in Louisiana's fabled Evangeline country.

There was no promise of a break in the dry spell which has extended over a period of two months.

The warm, humid weather continued today from the gulf northward to the extreme southern great lakes region and the middle Atlantic states.

Rain doused wide areas of the mid-continent. Heavy windstorms struck several communities in central Illinois last night, causing thousands of dollars property damage. One man was killed and more than 30 persons injured.

Two Drivers Fined And Lose Permits

Two motor vehicle drivers, both facing charges of being in physical control of autos while intoxicated, each drew $100 and costs and lost their driving permits for one year in Judge H. M. Rankin's court, Thursday morning.

The men were Olin Sturgill, Springfield, and Joseph P. Hiles, 32, Columbus.

Sturgill had demanded a trial when he was first taken before Judge Rankin several days ago after Sheriff Hays had arrested him. He changed his plea Thursday.

Hiles was arrested at 1 A. M. Thursday by Sheriff Hays while Hiles was in charge of a parked motor vehicle on the New Holland and Manara Road, a mile northwest of New Holland.

He was placed in the county jail until his arraignment Thursday.

The rates would mean an addition tax of $1 on each $100 of the taxpayer's income after deductions for church, charity and so on and exemptions for dependents.

On the excise or sales taxes, Snyder observed the House bill generally follows treasury proposals on which goods should be subjected to higher taxes, but he said it "does not raise the rates as much as proposed."

Snyder did not specify the excise tax rates.

Margaret Truman Received by Pope

VATICAN CITY, June 28—(AP)—Margaret Truman visited Pope Pius XII today.

The president's daughter was somberly gowned and veiled in black as she walked through the ancient and splendid halls of Vatican Palace. Accompanying her was Msgr. Martin John O'Connor, Titular bishop of Tespia and rector of the North American College in Rome.

She talked with the Pope for twenty minutes.

At the conclusion of the audience Vatican sources said the pontiff spoke "affably with the distinguished visitor" and asked Miss Truman to give his "particular greetings and wishes" to her father and mother.

Vatican sources said the Pope gave Miss Truman an artistic miniature.

Giant Bombers Fly Over City

About $10,500,000 in taxes flew over Washington C. H. Thursday morning. The taxes were in the form of three B-36 bombers, the largest bomber in use in the world.

The craft has a crew of 15 men with a minimum of 43 ground crew members required to keep it in the air.

The body of the plane is 162 feet long with a wingspan of 230 feet. It is 46 feet high—as tall as a four story building.

It can carry 21,000 gallons of gas and 1,200 gallons of oil. Its top speed is somewhere in the 435 mile-an-hour bracket, but other than that there is little other information given out on the huge craft by the Air Force.

Soil Pictures To Shown to Grangers

The Good Hope Grange will have an opportunity to see pictures on soil conservation at its next meeting at 8:30 P. M. next Tuesday. Melvin Hiesel, farm planner for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, will show the pictures. The meeting will be held at the Grange hall in Good Hope.

Conscience Cleared After 35 Years

CLEVELAND, June 28 —(AP)— "When I was a boy about 35 years ago, I stole things from your box-cars," a man wrote George Durham, president of the Wheeling Lake Erie Railway.

"Since Jesus saved me, I have wanted to make restitution, but never knew how much to send," the letter continued. "At a revival meeting I asked the Lord what the sum was, and the still small voice of God answered $70."

A personal check for $70 was with the letter. The money will go into the railroad's general operating fund.

Price of Foods Fairly Steady

Demand for Beef Continues Slow

(By The Associated Press) Egg prices advanced one to four cents a dozen in many stores this week, grapefruit and lemons were up slightly, and tomatoes and a few other fresh produce items were lower.

But otherwise, prices of major foods held generally unchanged from last week-end.

While the future of beef price controls was being argued in Washington, butchers reported that consumer demand for high-priced steaks and roasts continued so light that even with supplies reduced there was no real scarcity.

Pork and chicken, both plentiful, continued to give beef good competition for the shopper's meat dollar. About 14 percent more hogs were slaughtered in May than in the same month last year and cold storage stocks of pork at the beginning of June were still almost 25 percent larger than a year earlier.

The poultry and egg national board said the biggest crop of broiler chickens of the year is about due in markets this coming week.

Pork roast prices in a typical retail market this week were six cents a pound higher than a year ago. Broilers were no higher. But sirloin steak was up 19 cents.

The continued rise in egg prices was blamed largely on seasonal influences.

Heavy shipments of tomatoes from such important growing areas as Texas, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama pushed prices down sharply in many cities this week.

Receipts of canteloupes and melons from California and Arizona, and cherries from Idaho, Oregon and Washington also were increasing in distant markets, easing prices.

Here's the agriculture department's national list of plentiful foods for thrifty buying in the coming month:

Potatoes and locally - grown vegetables, peaches (in the northeast, southeast and midwest), plums, lemons, limes, oranges, canned applesauce, broiler and fryer chickens, fresh and frozen fish, cottage cheese, buttermilk, peanut butter and honey.

Wholesale food prices eased off slightly this week, according to the Dun & Bradstreet food index which represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 general use foods. The index at $7.02 compared with $7.07 last week, and with $6.04 a year ago (the week the Korean war began). The peak of the index in the past year was $7.31 on Feb. 20.

$500,000 in Goods Lost in 30 Months

NEW YORK, June 28 —(AP)—Goods worth $500,000 have been stolen from the Montgomery Ward and Co. mail order house here in the last 30 months, police disclosed today.

Authorities said they were questioning two of the firm's truck drivers and a housewife. None had been charged.

Charles Lazar, Montgomery Ward's eastern division traffic manager, said Montgomery Ward and insurance company detectives had been investigating the thefts for at least a year.

New York City detectives, disguised as street cleaners and truck drivers, have been watching suspects for the past four weeks. Police said one of the truck drivers, William Dorsey, 28, of the Bronx, made an admission of complicity.

The other driver, Joseph Van-uska, 63, of Manhattan, was described by police as the "brains" behind the corporation.

BARBERTON LADY LOST 60 LBS. IN 2 MONTHS

"I can proudly say that I have lost 60 lbs. in a period of 2 months since taking Renuel and my dress size has changed from size 32 to a 14 or 16," writes Mrs. Louise Connolly, Box 11 A, Summit St. Ext., Barberton, Ohio. "At age 28 I am now my normal weight, and have new vitality. No wonder so many people like myself are pleased with the results they have received from Renuel."

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Renuel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Insist on genuine Renuel.

Military Construction Plans And Foreign Aid To Be Studied

By CLARENCE J. BROWN

From the sworn testimony given before the Senate committee investigating the Gen. MacArthur dismissal, certain facts stand out. One: That American entrance into the Korean War was undertaken upon the request of Dean Acheson, secretary of state -- that Gen. MacArthur's opinion was not asked -- and that while the chiefs of staff were informed of the contemplated Korean action and pointed out the difficulties to be encountered in the action ordered by the president. Two: That a plan of the joint chiefs of staff to send a military mission to Formosa in 1949 was blocked by the State Department -- and that the holding up of aid to the Nationalist government of China in both 1949 and 1950 by State Department influence resulted in the Communists taking over control of China.

The Truman administration is now exerting its every effort to bring an end to the war in Korea as soon as possible on almost any terms that will save face. Gen. Ridgway, supreme commander in the Far East, is believed to have been given authority to enter into a military truce whenever he can to bring a stop to the Korean fighting, even on a temporary basis. The reason: 1952 is election year, and the administration is desirous of campaigning on a "peace and prosperity" platform.

June 25 marked the first anniversary of the beginning of the war in Korea. During the first year of the Korean War American troops suffered 73,604 battle casualties as compared to 57,000 suffered in the first full year of our struggle against Japan in World War Two. In the Korean War we have lost 10,833 men killed in combat as compared to 8,000 killed during the first year of the Japanese War; 50,690 wounded in Korea in comparison to 6,000 in the war with Japan; 12,081 missing in action during the present struggle against 43,000 missing in the first year of our struggle against Japan. These figures do not include more than 75,000 noncombat casualties, many of whom are dead or maimed from accidents, illness, frostbite, etc.

Many members of Congress are questioning the need for the $3.5 billion requested by the president for foreign aid for the coming fiscal year, for two reasons. First, that western Europe has increased her productive capacity over prewar production since the fighting stopped to a greater extent than has the United States; has 250 million people; has far larger industrial production capacity than Russia, and should, therefore be able to defend herself. Second, that the financial condition of the United States will not permit the continuing of great foreign aid grants. The president's eight billion five hundred million dollar foreign aid program would cost Ohio's taxpayers $487,050,000, and those of the 7th congressional district somewhere between 21 and 22 million dollars.

The proposal by Secretary of State Acheson and President Truman to investigate the so-called "China lobby" made up of those opposed to the administration's policies in China and the Far East, may bring unexpected repercussions. Many members of Congress are demanding a complete investigation of all foreign lobbies, as there are more than 225 individuals and organizations now active in Washington as registered agents of foreign nations, including a number of former White House aides, former cabinet members and others close to the administration, who have had great influence in obtaining some thirty billion dollars of American funds for the aid and benefit of foreign governments since the end of World War Two.

President Galo Plaza Lasso of Ecuador, born in New York City and educated at Maryland and California Universities, where he was starred in football and athletics, was the official guest of the nation at a state banquet last Wednesday night and a joint session of Congress on Thursday. The Ecuadorian president is considered the best friend the United States has among the heads of the various governments of South America.

Secretary of Defense Marshall last week officially requested $6.5 billion for what he termed "urgently needed" military construction. Included in the request was $3.5 billion for Air Force bases, with $2.5 billion for overseas bases. Approximately $2 billion of the total would be for secret installations. A $600 million military and defense appropriation bill is being readied to meet other requests of the defense department. Both measures will be carefully scrutinized by Congress, as not as much faith and confidence are placed in Gen. Marshall's judgment and policies as formerly.

The House last week passed several bills for the benefit of veterans and their dependents. One would provide cost of living pension increases for veterans of both World Wars and the Korean conflict by 5 percent for those with less than 50 percent disability, and 15 percent for those with more than 50 percent disability. Benefits for veterans' widows and motherless children would be increased by 15 percent. Income limitations in non-service connected disability and pension cases would be increased. Pensions of veterans needing the care of other persons would be increased to $120.00 a month. Pension eligibility requirements for Civil War, Indian Wars and Spanish-American War widows would be liberalized. World War One term life insurance policies could be renewed at five year intervals instead of transferring to permanent insurance. Additional veterans hospital facilities would be provided.

The average American may have a greater interest in the present controversy between Great Britain and Iran over Iranian oil than he knows. If Iranian oil and gasoline are cut off from Europe, the United States will be called upon to meet Europe's oil and gas needs. This will mean gasoline and oil rationing in America, for which stand-by plans are reported to have already been made by OPS Director DiSalle's economic planners.

Florida Crime Probe Gets New Fireworks

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 28 (AP)—New fireworks in the shape of opposing subpoenas have been tossed into the battle of words between Gov. Fuller Warren of Florida and the U. S. Senate crime investigating committee. The committee's summons, directing Warren to appear at Washington July 9, was served on the governor yesterday at an undisclosed seaside vacation spot. At the same time, it was announced Sen. Herbert O'Connor (D-Md.), crime committee chair-

NEW YORK, June 27 (AP)—Television has brought back to usefulness a piece of farm equipment which rural electrification long since sent into the discard on many farms. That is the old windmill tower, left standing after electric pumps took over the job of producing water once done with the aid of a stiff breeze.

The towers, in their new capacity, are serving as 50 to 75-foot masts for TV receiving antennas. It is surprising how many of the ex-windmills are performing in a field far from that for which they were designed.

A cursory survey of farm areas stretching well into the middlewest, some barely within range of TV cities, shows a surprisingly large number of homesteads to be part of the video audience. At least the antennas are as numerous, relatively speaking, in those areas as they are in urban localities. Some farm homes, situated between two or more TV centers, use motor-driven rotary antennas so that they can be directed for reception from opposite points.

Network switches in programs and the other schedule shifts they bring about continue to spring up. Horace Heidt's Sunday night talent hunt show on CBS radio is to be moved up an hour on July 1 to replace Red Skelton. Skelton, off on a vacation, is to move back to NBC in the fall, transferring to TV where he is to have a Sunday night comedy show Heidt has a separate CBS-TV talent series on Monday nights, transmitted from film.

Mr. Keen, tracer of lost persons, on CBS radio for years, is to be transferred to NBC by the sponsor on July 20 and will be heard on Friday nights instead of Thursdays. Originally this program was three 15-minute periods a week.

The much-heralded television version of Amos and Andy finally gets under way as a weekly series on CBS-TV at 8:30 (Eastern Daylight) tonight. For the radio show the creators, Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, have portrayed the principal roles over the years, but for video a separate all-Negro cast will be used. Alvin Childress will be Amos, Spencer Williams is Andy and Tim Moore the Kingfish. In radio Amos also did the Kingfish. The program will be run off from films made in Hollywood.

The Comedy Hour, off NBC-TV for nine weeks until September 2, will be back with a star list that will continue Martin and Lewis as well as Eddie Cantor. The schedule calls for 44 broadcasts next season. In radio Phil Harris and Alice Faye (she's the Mrs.) have been renewed again for NBC. Unlike last year when the program was presented under network auspices, there will be a sponsor and it will take a new name, a half hour later, at 8, meaning that the big show which precedes it is to change to 6:30 to 8.

Topics tonight (Thursday)—NBC—8 Henry Aldrich, Family; 8:30 Father Knows Best; 9 Dragnet Police drama; 9:30 Counter Spy "Juvenile Narcotics Ring;" 10 Screen Directors "Lady takes a Chance;" CBS—8 FBI in Peace and War "The Knife;" 8:30 Mr. Keen "Swimming Pool Murder;" 9 Suspense "Secret of Dr. Walter;" 9:30 Gloria Swanson in "Double Indemnity;" 10:15 Wm. Pre-Induction Still Not Too Late To Enlist

U. S. Air Force
Open to Volunteers
Until July 15

Men who have received their pre-induction physical examinations have an opportunity to volunteer in the United States Air Force from now until July 15, Sgt. Longberry, air force recruiting officer here, announced today.

This opportunity will be extended only during the 30-day period, June 15 to July 15. It results from temporary suspension of a defense department ban against men joining the service of their choice after they have received their pre-induction physical examination.

Those men who have not received their pre-induction physicals are also eligible for duty with the air force.

Expanded training facilities of the air force will give those volunteering during this period an opportunity for many specialized training courses and a wide range of interesting assignments. The air force has many openings in such fields as radio, radar, air traffic control, meteorology and armament, Sgt. Longberry said.

During the next 12 months the air force will be greatly enlarged. New installations will be opened in many locations. This expansion will bring with it opportunities for promotion and travel, according to Sgt. Longberry.

Volunteer enlistments will be accepted between the hours of 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. daily except Sunday until July 15 at the joint U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, 115 1-2 East Court Street.

Men wishing to volunteer must bring their pre-induction notice and draft cards with them. Those accepted will be available for immediate assignment.

OPS Changes Rules To Stop Squeezes

The Office of Price Stabilization has changed one of its pricing rules to prevent exceptionally severe squeezes on the margins of some retailers.

The change has to do with how a retailer uses pricing rule four in pricing his goods under ceiling price regulation seven.

The rule applies to situations where a retailer is pricing an item which he has received at an invoice cost which lies between costs appearing on his pricing chart.

As amended, the regulation permits the retailer to price the new item by reference to the next higher and the next lower costs for the category on his chart. He averages the percentage markups of those two costs and uses the resulting markup to figure his ceiling price for the new item.

Fireworks Show Set at Drive-In

Fireworks, almost a memory on the Fourth of July, will be cascaded into the night air at the 3-C Drive In Theatre on the eve of the holiday, July 3, according to an announcement made by the management.

A 30-minute aerial show will be staged after the second show, about 10 P. M. Tuesday.

Most of the fireworks will be shot into the air from an area in front of the screen at the drive-in theatre.

There will be a 50-foot Niagara Falls, cascade wheel, golden fantasy fool wheel, homing pigeon and other fireworks. There will be colored flitters, stars and bomb shells burst in the air at night.

Each year the drive in theatre stages the only fireworks display in this area.

Sale of fireworks at retail or their use is prohibited by the state code. For this reason residents here have little opportunity to see the colorful nightly displays which were common before the use of fireworks was banned.

Motor Vehicle Fees Distributed

County Auditor Ulric Acton has completed distribution of $24,579.36 received from the state as the second advanced distribution of motor vehicle license fees.

Of the amount, the following distributions were made: county engineering department for maintenance and repair, $19,929.36; Bloomington, $176.25; Jeffersonville, $205.75; Milledgeville, $87.25; New Holland, $6.75; Octa, $4.50 and Washington C. H. $4,169.50.

Money from the motor vehicle distribution is to be used for the repair of streets and roads in Fayette County, Acton said.

without paying a gasoline bill at a station in Samantha (Highland County).

After he had failed to pay for the gasoline, Sheriff Gustin, of Highland County was notified, and the police here received a call from the sheriff.

A short time later Trubler was arrested by the Washington C. H. police as he rolled into Leesburg Avenue.

Sheriff Gustin came after him and returned him to Highland County to face charges there.

New Minister To Give Sermon At Milledgeville

Rev. Ancel Arnold
Gets First Charge
While in Seminary

Rev. Ancel H. Arnold, 30, of Alma, Ill., will preach his first sermon at the Milledgeville Methodist Church on Sunday.

He replaces Rev. J. N. Strickland, who has moved to another preaching assignment.

Rev. Ancel Arnold

The new minister at the Milledgeville Church is a former B-26 pilot in the United States Army Air Force during World War II.

He received his flight training at Kelly Field, Tex., Coleman, Tex., San Angelo, Tex., and was graduated from Lubbock Field, Texas as a second lieutenant. After his commissioning, he received his transitional training at Frederick, Okla.

Rev. Arnold received his bachelor of arts degree from McKendree College in Lebanon, Ill., in 1950 and has completed one year at Asbury Theological Seminary in Willmore, Ky.

Next fall he will continue his theological studies at Asbury during the week, reserving the weekend for visiting with his family and preaching alternatively at Milledgeville, South Solon and Spring Grove. The drive to Willmore, Ky. from Milledgeville is about 170 miles.

Last Sunday he preached his

Cost of Living Hits New High

Increase in Wages
Now Possibility

WASHINGTON, June 28 —(AP)—The government's cost of living index today edged to a new record high. The rise means 1,200,000 railroad workers are entitled under their contract to a one-cent hourly wage increase July 1.

The index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics rose to 185.4 percent of the 1935-39 average. This level was reached on both the bureau's new and old type indexes.

The figure is for May 15. A month earlier, on April 15, the index stood at 184.5 on the old basis and 184.6 on the new.

The bureau has a new index, taking into account changed buying habits, but also continues to figure its "old index" because many labor contracts have "escalator" clauses based on the old index.

There are clauses calling for a wage rise to compensate for rises in the cost of living. The railroad contract is a case in point.

The living cost increase also is bound to be taken into consideration by the Wage Stabilization Board in its deliberations on developing a new, and probably higher, pay increase ceiling for workers generally.

The index rise from April 15 to May 15 was due chiefly to fractional retail price boosts for foods and most other major consumer items.

The May 15 figure is nearly nine percent above June, 1950, when the Korean War began and 9.5 percent above a year ago.

Food prices rose eight-tenths of one percent from mid-April to mid-May. Higher average food prices were reported in 43 of 56 cities surveyed.

Slight retail price increases also were reported for apparel, house furnishings, rent, and miscellaneous goods and services.

However, the Labor Statistics Bureau noted that food prices declined on the average in the last two weeks of May—possibly indicating that the next government living cost report, for mid-June, may register a slight decline. The index runs a month late because of the time needed to assemble the figures.

Hedy Lamarr's Bed Is Sold for $250

HOLLYWOOD, June 28 —(AP)—Three-year-old Linda Joy Moncrieff is a new glamour queen today; she's the possessor of Hedy Lamarr's bed.

The oversized bed, with a diamond-tufted headboard, a rose velvet spread and ruffled valance to match, sold for $250 last night when personal belongings of Miss Lamarr, who says she's quit her Hollywood career, went on the auction block.

The bed was bought by H. S. Moncrieff, 40, Burbank, Calif., aircraft supply company owner, who said it's for his little daughter, "because she looks just like Hedy."

Songwriter Jimmy McHugh played some of his tunes on Miss Lamarr's grand piano, then bought it for $2,400.

More than 500 bargain hunters crowded the auction galleries. The sale will continue for several weeks.

Cancer-doomed Girl To Give Up Lover

ATLANTA, June 28 —(AP)—Pretty 18-year-old Betty Thompson, given only a short time to live because of cancer, has decided to break her engagement to Sailor Tom Amburn.

She met Tom when he visited a neighbor and he later made several visits here from Norfolk, Va., where he is stationed. On the latest visit a few weeks ago, Tom said his mother in Sioux Falls, S. D., had collapsed on hearing of his engagement.

Tom, on emergency leave to visit Betty, flew from here to South Dakota to be with his mother. When he returned to Norfolk he was reported suffering with a bad case of nerves.

"I'm not mad at him," she said yesterday. "But I think it best to end our engagement under the circumstances. x x x I love Tom, just like I love everybody."

Pool Room Raided; Gamblers Nabbed

NEWARK, June 28 —(AP)—Police Capt. James Cree led a raid on a pool hall early today and arrested eight men on gambling charges. Cree said he found a poker game in progress in a back room.

Two men whom Cree identified as operators of the establishment, Harley L. Love, 36, and John Annarino, 64, were freed on bonds of $500 and $200 respectively.

They were charged with operating a game of chance.

Three other men were charged with gambling and three with visiting a gambling establishment and released on $10 and $25 bonds.

Peace or No Peace in Korea War, Defense Plants To Keep Humming

BY SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK, June 28—(AP)—Defense factories expect to be humming this fall—with or without peace in Korea. And the boss may be faced again with his old war-time problems: 1. Recruiting and holding workers; 2. Cutting down the loss of man - days through absenteeism, illness and accidents.

Defense Mobilization Director Wilson tells the National Industrial Advertisers Association here that defense manpower shortages are beginning to appear. He cites tool and die makers, designers, builders and engineers. And the Bureau of Labor Statistics in a special report predicts that by fall employers will be engaging in keen competition for manpower. It notes that only 1.6 million persons are out of work now, or 1.5 million fewer than a year ago.

There are several suggestions today as to what to do about the twin problems of getting workers and cutting down man-day losses. The paper cup and container institute, as you might guess, suggests luring and keeping the employee through the better dispensing of food and drink, the National Association of Mutual Casualty Insurance Companies surveys the absentee problem. It's no surprise to find the association strong for eliminating factory accidents.

Mechanical Devices

Machinery and mechanical devices will save many man-hours of labor, the American Institute of Food Distribution counsels food handlers. An electrical industry spokesman tells us that output for each man-hour can be stepped up by wider use of electricity in industry.

Industry personnel experts estimate that absenteeism drained war production of 164 million man days and non-war production of 1.5 billion man-hours each year during the last war. A study of this drain during booming 1950 is offered today by Joseph C. Stenett, director of accident prevention for the Mutual Casualty Insurance Companies.

The common cold, of course, is the chief culprit—Stenett estimates colds and other respiratory diseases cause from 50 to 90 percent of the time loss. Second on the list are accidents. He says industrial accidents lost 40 million man days last year at a cost to industry of $2.7 billion.

Another Time-saver

One way to save time and also keep the workers well and contented, the Paper Cup and Container Institute contends, is to improve factory feeding procedures. The institute made a survey of 240 factories and compares today's procedures with those in the last war.

Three-fourths had cafeterias during the last war, and even more do today. The number of waiter-service restaurants has declined. The number with snack bars or canteens has increased. Both today and during the war one-third of them had mobile units or food carts. If the fractions add up to more than 100 percent, it's because most plants have more than one type of food service.

The institute says one service worker can handle 127 customers from a food cart, 159 from a snack bar, and 61 in a regular cafeteria setup.

The survey shows a trend toward turning the food service over to an outside expert answerable to management on quality, prices, and service. It finds that company managed food services lose money more frequently.

Medical substances are frequently found in herbs, shrubs and trees, among them being arnica montana from the arnica root, strychnos nux-vomica from nux vomica seeds, ginger from ginger rootstock, digitalis from foxglove leaves, belladonna from the deadly nightshade root.

Retail Business Is Tapering Off

War-scare Buying No Longer Factor

NEW YORK, June 28—(AP)—Sure to give your neighbor, the retail merchant, an extra encouraging pat on the back from time to time this summer. And remind him that his sales figures aren't actually as bad as they're going to look.

Because the retail merchant is going to be thrown for a loss—by statistics.

Of the state of the war-scare buying that followed the start of the fighting in Korea, your merchant is well aware that in the weeks ahead his sales figures, compared with last year, are going to look bad indeed.

If there's any scare ahead, it's more likely to be peace-scare selling than war-scare buying.

As for yourself—you might watch out for a possible outbreak of jitters among retailers, and their bankers, when the minus signs appear week after week in the store sales comparisons. Jitters, fed by the knowledge that store inventories are still high, and peace possible, could lead to price cutting.

Grab Those Bargains

And if these bargains do appear, you'd do well to snap them up—if inflation starts again next winter, as some think, these bargains could be the last for a while.

Retail sales are already running behind those of last year in eight of the 21 Federal Reserve Bank districts, as measured in dollars and cents. Because of the great hike in prices since Korea, that means that unit volume sales are likely well below last year.

In the weeks ahead, when sales figures will be compared to the phenomenal war-scare buying spree of last summer, the national average man run at least 10 percent below last year in dollar volume, and merchants may be moving around one-fourth fewer units of goods.

Some of that may be because many people have well-stocked closets, and at the same time feel the pinch of higher taxes and higher prices. Most of it will be because of what happened last summer.

Hysterical buyers cleared out store shelves in fear of coming shortages after the Reds marched into South Korea. July department store sales jumped 30 percent above those of 1949. August sales volume was up 18 percent and September buying up 11 percent.

The Federal Reserve Board's index of store sales rose from 298 last June to 362 in July, 335 in August, and 320 in September. The board figures the 1935-39 average of sales as 100 in its index.

War Scare Possibility

Only some new, unsighted war scare could send buyers into the stores this summer in any comparable numbers. And most consumers are now shame-facedly aware that their scare buying was senseless—no shortages have yet appeared—and that it only resulted in sending prices sky-high. All consumers, merchants and manu-

Artist-actor Jewel Thief On the Side

NEW YORK, June 28—(AP)—A yen for natty clothes today brought robbery charges against a self-styled "actor-artists", accused of twice holding up the same midtown jewelry store for a total of $220,000 in gems.

The 34-year-old man-about-town, Arthur Chesler, said he picked on the fashionable Jean Schlumberger, Inc. Shop because people believe "lightning never strikes twice" in the same place.

He even went back a third time, he said, but this time the store was wary and had a private detective on hand. The detective chased Chesler, who lost a Panama hat.

Police said they traced the Panama hat, of an expensive and limited manufacture, to Chesler.

A bartender, Thomas Keenan, 28, also was arrested in connection with the holdups. Keenan was facturer—that helped in spiraling inflation on its way.

Latest Federal Reserve figures on sales show the national average for the week ending June 16 was up one percent from a year before. But that was only because New York's price-war hoopla carried its sales up 11 percent above the same week last year. San Francisco was five percent ahead of a year ago, but eight other districts showed minus signs and the remaining two were just even.

If your neighbor, the merchant, is worried just now, tell him that almost everyone seems to think things will change this fall. It may be whistling in the dark. But most of the forecasters look for a pick up in sales this winter, for a marked drop in inventories, for a gain in the total of money in shoppers' pockets, and for stiffening of prices.

Worry of FALSE TEETH

Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprin-kle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

charged with criminally receiving stolen goods.

But neither Keenan or Chesler, police said, produced the gems.

Authorities said Chesler admitted the holdups and Keenan admitted trying to dispose of the loot in Miami, Fla., without success.

Sailor Brought in Aboard Navy Blimp

ABOARD U. S. S. PALAU Off Carolina Capes, June 28 — (Delayed)—(AP)—A navy blimp made a dramatic race with death this afternoon carrying a critically ill sailor from this escort carrier to the naval hospital in Norfolk.

The seaman, Raymer Exton Stormes, 21, of Norwood, O., was struck down by a heart attack early in the afternoon.

It took just 47 minutes for the sliver, cigar-shaped blimp to drop down on this ship, take the sick man aboard and clear the Palau's deck on its mission of mercy.

(At the naval hospital, doctors said Stormes was suffering from an intracranial hemorrhage. They said his condition was fair.)

The blimp, with two others, had been engaged in landing exercises on the carrier, all three blimps are based at the naval air station at Weeksville, N. C.

Ike for President Started for GOP

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., June 28 —(AP)—New York state's Republican chairman today called for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as the GOP nominee for president.

Chairman William L. Pfeiffer said "I think we can be sure" that Gen. Eisenhower's "special talents are available to the United States for that assignment of 1952—the presidency."

Pfeiffer made the endorsement in a speech prepared for a conference of the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs of New York state.

A statement from the Republican state committee in New York City said he is the first GOP state chairman "to come out" for Eisenhower.

'Friendship' Move Includes Russia

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—Congressional action was completed yesterday on a resolution affirming U. S. friendship "for all other peoples," including the Russians.

The measure, which does not require presidential approval, requests President Truman to call upon the Soviet government "to acquaint the peoples of the Soviet Union with the contents of this resolution."

The House approved the resolution by a vote of 349 to 6.

Many Industrial Uses of Corn Underscored by Analysis of Complicated Defense Economy

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—What makes an industry essential in the nation's defense? The answer isn't as simple as you might think—now that our complicated economy makes most industries unable to operate without the products of other industries.

The question is likely to be debated sharply, and at a very practical level, when industries begin jockeying for favorable positions as the government starts to dole out available supplies of raw materials.

The national production authority says today it is putting off until July 7 the start of its controlled materials plan—a week's delay in the parcelling out of steel, aluminum and copper, so mills will have more time to change over their schedules.

Allocation Problem

But the basic question—what industries get how much of the remaining supplies of scarce metals and chemicals—will soon get much sharper.

Take corn refining, for instance. The companies who use corn not as livestock food but to extract other products from it want stainless steel. They are modernizing and expanding their plants and they say only stainless steel will do their job properly. But stainless steel is a top essential in the defense program, and the government says what industries get what there is of it. So, it's up to the corn refining companies to prove that they, too, are essential.

Most people may think of corn refining as a process that produces syrup for hotcakes and starch for puddings. That's only the beginning, says the Corn Industries Research Foundation, which represents many leading companies in the field. It says it isn't plugging for stainless steel. It just wants to be recognized as playing a part in defense.

Corn products, the foundation says, are essential to the current methods of manufacture of a long list of things used by the armed services. To an even longer list, corn products of one sort or another are irreplaceable if these essential military items are to be produced in quantity necessary for full defense production.

A corn refinery by product, steepwater, increases the yield of penicillin molds by ten times. It is used in making streptomycin, and a derivative of steepwater is part of the vitamin B complex. The corn industry is proud of helping to maintain the health of the military and in saving the lives of the wounded.

Corn Goes to War too

Soldiers use detonators. A corn product, dextrin, is used in making detonators.

The foundation also proudly points out that the makers of chewing gum use starch and corn syrup. And chewing gum, the foundation insists, is essential to a soldier. To this the foundation adds beer, saying that a corn product, caramel color, is used by brewers.

Corn syrup goes into cough drops. And crude sugar from corn goes into leather tanning materials and into making viscose rayon fibres.

Soldiers, old and new, might be amazed to know that those instruction manuals they struggle through owe part of their present state to starch and dextrin. These two corn products also go one way or another into the making of cigarettes, match heads, uniforms, parachutes, military maps, naval charts, paper cups, paper bags and tire fabrics.

The same two corn products are used in the present methods of deep well drilling for oil and natural gas, and in extracting alumina from bauxite. That leads the foundation to claim corn refining should be classed as a defense-supporting industry, because the military needs oil and gas, and because aluminum goes into a host of things from messkits to airplanes.

Other corn products are used in the cold process of making synthetic rubber, in dry cell batteries, blueprint paper, salt water soap, pyrotechnics.

And they go into baking powder and pie fillings. And what American soldier could do without cake and pie?

Fourth of July Caution Issued

Nearly 500 Killed on Fourth Last Year

"Too many reckless motorists wreck their own and other people lives on the Fourth of July," Police Chief Vaiden Long said Thursday.

Pointing out that 491 persons died in traffic accidents over the Fourth last year, Chief Long urged the city's residents to drive with extra care and caution.

"Holidays always bring heavy traffic and extra hazards," he said. He pledged his department's wholehearted support to the nationwide Fourth of July safety campaign being coordinated by the National Safety Council.

Chief Long advised motorists to start early if they plan an all day trip, so there will be no need to hurry. "Slow down at sundown," he added "and be patient in heavy traffic."

"Don't let annoyance make you take chances with your own or someone else's life. Avoid abrupt stops and turns, and be careful in passing another vehicle. Drive sensibly and obey legal speed limits. They are for your protection," the chief said.

"Excessive speed is involved in one out of every three fatal traffic accidents," Chief Long stated.

MT. VERNON, June 28.—(AP)—A gravel slide buried and smothered 36-year-old Everett Purdy of Killbuck last night. Purdy, a shovel operator, was buried in the cab of the machine he was operating at the Killbuck Sand and Gravel Co. plant near Brinkhaven, 15 miles east of Mount Vernon.

State Pay Hike Under Attack

Injunction Suit Plans Take Form

COLUMBUS, June 28—(P)—A state employee said he will file a taxpayer's suit to block pay increases of $7,500,000 due July 1 for about 28,000 state employees.

John L. Nolan, a sales tax examiner in State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson's office, said he will file the suit in Franklin County common pleas court "before Sunday."

Nolan said he has hired an attorney but declined to name him. He said the attorney will ask an injunction against the start of the new pay system voted by the Legislature.

Nolan said the system discriminates against long-time employees in higher pay brackets. Employees solicited by Nolan for contributions said he told them he was trying to raise $400. But Nolan said the court action may cost several hundred dollars more. He said contributions already received indicate he will have enough money for the court fight.

Lower-paid workers standing to benefit most from the new pay schedule expressed concern over the proposed suit. They are due for automatic pay raises starting next month.

Smallest Benefits

But some employees in the higher pay brackets will not share in the automatic raises. They will get only cost-of-living boosts granted to all workers.

State officials said the cost-of-living raises amount to about five percent.

Carl Smith, chairman of the State Civil Service Commission, said he knew nothing about Nolan's contemplated suit. The commission is going ahead with plans to put the new job and pay classification schedule into effect on schedule, Smith said.

Nelson Watkins, executive secretary of Ohio Civil Service Employees Association, said his organization is not a party to the Nolan's move.

"We will oppose any action if it is filed," Watkins told newsmen.

The new system sets up five automatic pay raises, or steps, for each job classification. Employees working for the state for more than six months will advance one pay-step automatically on July 1.

Employees with more than 10 years of state service will advance two steps in pay if they are in the lower salary ranges. A long-time employee now in the fourth pay-step would advance only one step.

Employees whose pay is equal to that established for the fifth step would not get an increase.

Such workers can get raises only by being promoted to jobs with additional duties.

System Is Opposed

Nolan says he objects to the lack of comparable pay raises for about 5,000 employees whose salaries now are equivalent to those for steps four and five.

Nolan said the new system provides for "service raises." He insists that raises should be based on merit, instead of longevity.

Most state employees got pay increases totaling about $3,500,000—voted by the Legislature two years ago.

Commission Chairman Smith said each pay-step increase costs the state about $3,000,000 a year. He estimated the cost of living increases that all employees will get at another $3,000,000. He said the additional pay-steps allowed about 10,000 employees with 10 years service will cost another $1,500,000 this year.

Ferguson's office said Nolan is acting on his own and that it has nothing to do with the suit.

Rescued from Lake

LORAIN, June 28—(P)—Coast Guardsmen rescued Oscar Orheim, 38, and his stepson, Gerald Walsh, 16, of Vermilion in Lake Erie today after they drifted in the dark 10 hours in a disabled outboard motor boat.

LAZY but hot-tempered Anthony Brancato is one of the FBI's most wanted fugitives on its "Ten Most Wanted Criminals" list. The 36-year-old Brancato has been hunted by the FBI since he was identified as a member of a four-man holdup gang which robbed the commission race book at the Flamingo hotel in Las Vegas, Nev., May 28 of this year. He has a prominent nose, usually wears horn-rimmed glasses, is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has black hair thin on top and his eyes are brown.

Three Face Jail On 'Dope' Charges

DAYTON, June 28—(P)—Three men who were charged with acquisition or possession of narcotics—including a Wilberforce University student—yesterday received jail sentences from Judge Robert R. Nevin in federal court.

Clifford D. Tapplett of Dallas, Tex., the Wilberforce student, was sentenced to a year and a day on a charge of acquiring marihuana. Rudell H. Fleenor of Louisville, Ky., was sentenced to 18 months when he pleaded guilty to illegal possession of morphine. Fleenor currently is serving a 10-year sentence at Leavenworth. His new sentence will be served concurrently.

Judge Nevin sentenced a Dayton pharmacist, Clarence R. Beck, 43, to a year and a day after he pleaded guilty to illegal possession of morphine.

First Word from Son Is 'Killed in Action'

INDIANAPOLIS, June 28—(P)—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer hadn't heard from their son, John, 18, since he disappeared almost two years ago.

Yesterday, a War Department telegram said he had been killed in action in Korea.

John disappeared Sept. 8, 1949 after leaving home to go to work.

Defense Program Extension Sought

WASHINGTON, June 28—(P)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has proposed in an effort to lessen its impact on the domestic economy the defense mobilization program be spread over four years rather than the projected three.

Taft told a meeting of city and state housing officials here last night that the mobilization must be carried forward, even if the fighting in Korea stops, because of the threat of future Communist aggression.

"But if the federal budget goes to $90,000,000,000, I don't know where the money is coming from," the Ohioan said. "I fear that taxation on this scale will destroy the source of the tax revenues."

"I would rather take this mobilization in four years instead of three."

Margaret Truman May Fly Back Home

ROME, June 28—(P)—Margaret Truman may have to change her travel plans and fly back to America to fulfill her singing commitments.

She told a news conference here today she may have to go home by air unless her ship leaves Naples July 5 as scheduled.

"That's the latest I can stay here because of my contracts," she explained. "If my ship is delayed and I can't get passage on an early er one, then I might have to go by plane."

She is scheduled to sail aboard the S. S. Constitution which was held up in New York by a seamen's strike.

The president's daughter said she brought with her from America a special, long, black gown and veil for her private audience tomorrow morning with Pope Pius XII.

Pirates Edged By Reds, 2 to 1

Yankees Close in On Leading Chisox

BY JOE REICHLER
(By the Associated Press)
Cincinnati's Willie Ramsdell defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates last night, 2-1, but he and his helpers came within a whisker of letting the game get away from them.

A walk and three singles gave the Reds two runs off Bob Friend in the seventh after they had obtained only two other hits off the young Pirate hurler.

Came the ninth and Ramsdell had two men out and the count three and two on Bill Howerton, who then drove the next pitch over the fence for a home run.

Joe Garagiola then got a lift on Bobby Adams' error. Jack Phillips lofted one toward left field and it looked as if it was headed for the laundry--outside the park--but the ball dropped right against the fence and Lloyd Merriman hauled it in to end the game.

Tonight the Reds and the Pirates will play their third straight night contest and the pitchers were expected to be Ken Raffensberger and Bill Werle.

THE HOTTEST HURLER in the majors today is Allie (Wahoo) Reynolds, the part Indian right-hander from Bethany, Oklahoma who toils for the New York Yankees. Last night he racked up his third straight shutout as the Yanks whipped the Washington Senators, 2-0, on five hits.

The victory plus Detroit's 3-2 win over Chicago enabled the Yankees to climb to within one game of the American League leading White Sox. The third place Boston Red Sox also closed in on the leaders with a 6-5 victory over Philadelphia's Athletics and are now three games off the pace.

Brooklyn's National League leading Dodgers crushed the New York Giants, 10-4, to widen their margin to six games over their interborough rivals. The St. Louis Cardinals walloped the Chicago Cubs, 14-2 and Cincinnati edged out Pittsburgh 2-1.

Cleveland shellacked the St. Louis Browns, 8-1. Boston's Braves and the Philadelphia Phils were rained out.

THE 32-YEAR-OLD Reynolds was in trouble only in the fifth when Gene Verble slammed a three-bagger with one out. Allie preserved his shutout by getting rival pitcher Don Johnson to fly to short right and Gil Coan to ground out.

Reynolds, in registering his eighth win against four defeats, hasn't allowed a run in his last 23 2-3 innings nor a base on balls in 34 2-3 innings.

Allie is shooting for three new marks--most successive shutout games, most successive shutout innings and most consecutive innings without a base on balls--but he has a long way to go to reach any of them.

G. Harris (Doc) White hurled five straight shutout games for the White Sox back in 1904. Walter Johnson pitched 56 consecutive innings for Washington without allowing a run in 1913. Christy Mathewson did not issue a base on balls through 68 consecutive innings for the Giants in 1913. White owns the American League mark of 65 1-3 innings. He accomplished the feat in 1907.

Softball League Cracks Down On Use of Ineligible Players

"All games that the Welding School has played with Red Orihood as a player are considered forfeited in the league." That's the ruling handed down by the three man board of Fred Pierson, Robert A. Craig and Rev. Francis T. McCarty.

This decision came about after the other teams in the league had protested the use of Orihood in violation of rule 24 which was adopted by the managers of the teams before the opening of the season.

The rule states that: "All players, to be eligible for play in the league, must either live in this county or be regularly employed in Fayette County for the duration of the league season."

Orihood lives in New Holland, Pickaway County, and is also employed there. The board, therefore, decided that Orihood is not eligible to play in the league.

The board, in handing down its decision, added that "we suggest that the league adhere to the rules and regulations passed by the managers of the league for the betterment of the league."

At the time the decision was handed down, the Welders had won four games and lost only one.

A GAME BETWEEN the Welders and VFW on Tuesday June 19, was considered no contest since both the teams used ineligible players. This also was decided by the directors of the league. The game will be replayed at a later date.

The VFW team had three members who played in the game, from

Rifes Edge Huffs In 'Big Ball' Game

For keen competition and excitement, the "big ball" game took the cake in Wednesday night's sports program at Wilson Field.

Rife's Bookstore outfit, after getting off to a slow start, stepped on the gas and came on to beat the McPherson Huff team of Sabina 5 to 4.

Both teams are made up of what the boys of the Recreation League teams term older men. But, there was no evidence of creaking joints in the field of waning power at the plate.

with a homer and two singles to help the Indians hand the last place Browns their eighth successive loss.

Chillicothe. They were Harry Strousser, Harold Stout and Samuel Woods.

In making this decision the co-directors, Harry Townsend and Ron Guinn, quoted the national softball rules which reads: "When protest for ineligibility is allowed, the game should be forfeited to the opponent of the offending team. However, if it is shown that the protesting team had knowledge of the player's ineligibility before the start of the game and failed to so notify the opponent, the ineligible player should be removed from the team's roster and the game should be replayed."

No date for the replay of the game has been set as yet, but should be played within the next two weeks.

LaMotta Is Whipped By Irish Bob Murphy

NEW YORK, June 28--(AP)--Irish Bobby Murphy, the fighting ex-sailor with the golden touch in his leather mitts, was almost in sight of his goal today--a shot at the light heavyweight title--following his smashing seven round technical knockout of Jake La Motta.

The smiling, red-haired slugger, boxing's latest box office sensation and the pugilistic hit of television, set the state for a crack at champion Joey Maxim by battering and slicing the Bronx bull's swarthy features before 21,257 roaring fans at Yankee Stadium last night. The gross gate was $116,690.

In addition some 28,650 spectators witnessed the theater-cast in 11 theaters in eight cities. Today Irish Bobby and co-managers Irving Cohen and Travis Hatfield will sit down with Jack Kearns, Maxim's manager, and Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, to discuss a date for a Murphy-Maxim title scrap in New York. Kearns wants Murphy because "he's the guy who will pack them in."

"I'M READY FOR IT," said the elated Murphy. "I've got a return fight with Joey Rindone (Murphy lost on a foul to Rindone April 16) in Boston July 23. After that Maxim. He's the guy I want. I've been dreaming about that title for a long time."

From the fifth on La Motta, very slow afoot at a bulky 175-pounds, dripped blood from every pore. He was cut over and under both eyes, was cut on the chin and mouth, and there were dark bruises on his cheeks.

Just before the bell rang to end the seventh round, blood gushed from a deep cut over Jake's left eye.

Dr. Vincent A. Nardiello bounded into the ring, gave Jake a quick look, and when the Bull told him "I feel weak," the commission physician waved to referee Ray Miller to stop the fight.

Dayton Monarchs Play At Sabina Friday Night

Sabina's Lions will roar out again Friday evening as they tangle with the Tucker team on the Memorial diamond starting at 7 P. M.

The VFW Fastballers will take on the Monarchs of Dayton in an exhibition game, which is scheduled to get under way about 8:30 P. M. Hughey Butterfield, well known strikeout artist, will take over the mound duties for the visiting Monarchs.

Butterfield will be in familiar surroundings, for he used to do a lot of pitching for Sabina teams.

Elementary education in Yugoslavia is nominally compulsory and free.

NCR Wins Easily From VFW Outfit

There wasn't much to it in the way of competition, they all had a lot of fun anyway--especially the NCR boys, who romped to a 19 to 0 victory over the VFW in a Recreation League game at Wilson Field Wednesday night.

Despite the lopsided score, play in the field was fairly clean. The VFW boys just could not connect with Matson's slants. The NCR hurler, thus, racked up a no-hit-no-run game.

Where Have You Been all its Life?

THIS ad is addressed to the fellow known as "the man on the street." From that vantage point, you must have noticed that a lot of folks are driving 1951 Buicks.

You must have noted that you can spot one of these beauties--by its sparkling forefront--its gleaming fender ports--(three for the SPECIAL and SUPER, four for the ROADMASTER)--and by its fluent grace of lines and contours.

You've probably noticed, also, that these Buicks give a good account of themselves in traffic--ease to a gentle stop--get away to a nimble start when the light says, "Go."

You may even have noticed that these cars have a level-gaited stride that traces, as we've said before, to the fact that each wheel rides beneath its own coil spring.

But what we'd like to know is--when are you going to try one?

It's about time you climbed in the driver's seat.

It's about time that you sensed for yourself the thrill that comes from feeling your shoulders sink back in the cushions, when your toe gives the gas treadle a gentle nudge.

It's about time for you to be on the receiving end of those admiring glances which are the due of folks smart enough to pick the smart buy of the year.

What's holding you back? It can't be prices--for as you can see for yourself, you can own a SPECIAL for less than the price of some sixes--and SUPERS or ROADMASTERS are just as smart a buy in their fields.

So why not end the suspense? The welcome mat is out at our showrooms. We hope to greet you soon.

Vocal 'Corns' Silence Betty

HOLLYWOOD, June 28 (AP)—The noisy, harum-scarum, slambang Betty Hutton you see on the screen is, in reality, the quiet type at home.
 Oh yes she is! She's as quiet as a mouse.
 There's a reason. Betty can't talk because she's recuperating from an operation for corns on her vocal cords. She's been yelling so loudly for so many years that the cords acquired some nodes in the process of vibrating.
 (Nodes are knotty growths, not unlike corns).

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—The New York Post said today it had learned Gen. Douglas MacArthur now is paying only $14.90 a day for his 10-room presidential suite of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. The hotel declined comment on the story.

When the deposed Far East commander and his family first moved into the hotel last April it was announced then that he would pay $130-a-day for the palatial suite.

Last week, however, the hotel disclosed that MacArthur had leased the suite on a yearly rental basis. It indicated the rent had been reduced but declined to say how much.

Dates Are Set For Chest Drive

Aug. 15 Deadline For Participants

The board of directors of the Fayette County Community Chest set dates for the next Community Chest drive at its meeting here Wednesday night.

Campaign time in this county will be from Oct. 15-20, inclusive, the board decided.

Board members also set the deadline date for receiving applications from agencies interested in participating in the Chest benefits. It is August 15.

It was decided to hold the kick-off dinner Oct. 15. Dates for the drive coincide with those of the Chest campaign in Columbus. During the month of October Community Chest publicity gets its heaviest distribution.

Perse Harlow reported on a recent check into federated fund raising. He had letters from the national headquarters of the Community Chest and from the secretary of state of Wisconsin.

His report to the board indicated that in the case of state legislation it is principally concerned with keeping out questionable groups from making solicitations in states concerned. Such fraudulent groups are screened out before they are allowed to solicit for funds.

Procedure Discussed

Some discussion was held on campaign procedure, and it was decided that pledge cards be used in the next campaign without the names of the people at the various addresses printed on them. It will be the responsibility of the solicitor to write the names on the cards when calls are made.

It was reported that a few pledges still have not been received.

Some discussion took place on campaign procedure, and the board okayed, the purchase of training material, posters and other literature to be used in the campaign. The meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Those board members present included Robert Brubaker, president; Allen White, Ray Maynard, Joe Peters, Raymond Scott, Grace Huston, Mrs. Marie Williams, Mrs. Marguerite Powell, Charles Reinke and Perse Harlow, executive secretary.

FROZEN TEETH

A soldier in Korea was on a soup diet for three days after his false teeth froze solid one night in a cup of water.
